Archambeault & Cavanaugh,

511 North Fourth Street.

The State's Attorney says: "We will push the prosecution of the men who instigated the riot, and helped carry out the murder, as far as the law allows us. We intend, and are determined, to punish these rioters to the fullest extent of the law and for all there is in it," he continued, "and we hope justice will not be cheated this time. We want to look over all the evidence before deciding on what charges or charges to make, and I cannot say now what the charges will be. I think we will bring the matter before the next regular Grand Jury."

It was rumored that the State's Attorney would present a request to the judge to Rogers or Judge Garnett, to impanel a special Grand Jury to act on the cases of the Socialists, Spies and Fielding, their associates and dupes. The regular Grand Jury, it was thought, would not be impaneled till Monday week, and would have all it could do to attend to the ordinary jail cases.

FUND FOR DEAD OFFICERS' FAMILIES.
The fund for the benefit of the families of the dead and wounded police has been increased to $25,000. D. V. White, the Lackawanna Railroad official who was in the city, subscribed $500, while the New York Board of Trade telegraphed a $500 subscription.

The police raided a hall of the anarchists at No. 101 North Third street this morning and seized a few muskets found there.
Officer Madden, who was shot last night, is still living, but his condition remains critical.

The report from the County Hospital this morning is that Officers Barrett, Flavin, Miller and Jacob Hansen are beyond the hope of recovery, and the two former are sinking rapidly. The remainder of the wounded men are resting easily and will probably recover. Emil Lutz, one of the civilians shot, is in a dying condition.

INCENDIARY FIRE.
An incendiary fire was started in the lumber yards near North avenue bridge this morning. A can containing explosives, to which a fuse was attached, was found in one of the yards, confirming the idea that a band of incendiaries were at work. It was turned over to the police.

All the Socialists hiding places are now pretty well known to the police. The following, received last evening from the Chief of Police of New York, indicates the whereabouts of another nest, and to-day the place will be visited by detectives and subjected to a thorough search.

"John Hevlin, formerly of 11 Zion place, and Teeka are connected with anarchist Bohemian newspapers, the Badensmoot and the American Worker, and are the most dangerous anarchist leaders among the worst class of Bohemians in Chicago."

THE UNKNOWN OUTLAW.
It is now thought that the man who threw the dynamite bomb Tuesday night was a revolutionary agent from the East. Several persons called at the Central Station last evening and claimed that while present at the meeting to have had a good sight of him, and some of them thought they would be able to identify him should he be captured. The detectives are now busy tracing the movements of the anarchist leaders for the past fortnight, with special reference to the subversive action of Spies.

The police raided a Socialistic headquarters at 314 O'Fallon street this morning, but found nothing beyond red flags and incendiary banners.

The incendiary organ, the Arbeiter Zeitung, is preparing to issue an edition to-day. Twenty rioters in the Twelfth street district were arraigned this morning and held until Saturday in $500 bail each.

MOORE'S REVIVAL GETTING CLOSED.
Among the places closed by order of the Mayor last night was the Casino rink, where Rev. Moody is conducting his revivals. This was included in the order preventing all public assemblies.

OFFICER BARRETT.
Officer Barrett, wounded Tuesday night at 11:30 this forenoon, making a total of three deaths to date among the injured police men.

THE IMPRISONED ANARCHISTS.
A writ of habeas corpus has been sued out in the case of the twenty-five composers and employees of the Arbeiter Zeitung. They will have a hearing in the Criminal Court at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The four imprisoned anarchists, August Spies, Chris Spies, Sam Fielden and Michael Schwab, were photographed this morning.

A SUCCESSFUL POLICE RAID.
Detectives Skaggs, Myers, Bauer and Jones inspected the headquarters of the anarchists at 11 o'clock to-day, and found fifty rounds of ammunition, two rifles, a sword-bayonet, a revolver, a bull's head, a quantity of anarchist literature. The occupant of the house, Gustav Scandage, is said by the officers to be a member of the band.

The police made still another raid this afternoon at 11 West Lake street, seizing and carrying away a lot of red flags and banners, some of them emblazoned with the most threatening threats against the constituted authorities.

THE BOMB THROWER.
An officer of the Police Department said this afternoon that it was firmly believed that Spies was the man who threw the bomb. They are trying to find him, so as to fully identify Spies. The police decline to say anything regarding the man named Carpenter arrested yesterday.

AN ARRESTED POLICE.
The police raided No. 21 Milwaukee street

CHICAGO, May 6.—There is a greater feeling of confidence apparent this morning in the ability of the authorities to preserve the peace. The outlook continues threatening in certain quarters and the police expect that they may be called upon to disperse gatherings in certain quarters of the city, but the arrest of the four anarchists yesterday has insured a feeling that the element will no longer prove so troublesome in view of the fact that the police now believe that all the leading instigators of the recent troubles have been caught with possibly one exception. The collecting of evidence against the conspirators is proceeding rapidly.

A VIGOROUS PROSECUTION.
The State's Attorney says: "We will push the prosecution of the men who instigated the riot, and helped carry out the murder, as far as the law allows us. We intend, and are determined, to punish these rioters to the fullest extent of the law and for all there is in it," he continued, "and we hope justice will not be cheated this time. the headquarters of a communistic military organization, this afternoon. Leading through a trapdoor, an underground rifle range was discovered. No guns were secured.

LARGE SALES OF FIREARMS.
A prominent dealer in firearms in this city, referring to the seizure of the anarchists' weapons yesterday, said he would like to see the police put a stop to the indiscriminate sale of firearms that is now going on in Chicago. "Some of the most reputable dealers attached to the trade," he said, "are selling guns to whoever will buy. I will venture to say that there has been twice as many weapons of every class and description sold in Chicago during the last few days than there have been in as many years. Every gun store in the city is crowded with purchasers. Many small dealers have nearly exhausted their stocks, and the wholesale dealers are overrun with orders. One concern sent here early yesterday morning for two dozen revolvers. I had not got down and the order was filled. As soon as I entered the store I gave orders not to sell another weapon of any kind to the city trade so long as the present excitement exists. A few minutes later, the firm that I returned to sent another order, which of course, was not filled. I questioned some of my customers and they unblushingly told me that they did not care to whom they sold weapons so long as they got their money. Other dealers said that persons whom they knew to be agents for Socialistic societies, the pawnbrokers form the worst element in the trade. They have been doing a land office business the last few days in disposing of firearms, and yesterday were the most persistent applicants for weapons that we have seen."

Another firm said they had sold fully 200 revolvers yesterday.

A DECLARATION FROM WORKMEN.
The Executive Committee of the Trades and Labor Assembly and the Master Workmen of District Assembly No. 24, Knights of Labor, have issued the following circular:

FELLOW-CITIZENS.—The tragic events of the last few hours and the sacrifice of human life connected therewith—the legitimate result of the teaching of the anarchists and the demand for the abolition of the capitalist system—has been met by the Trades and Labor Assembly and District Assembly No. 24, Knights of Labor, should be clearly and officially declared. We played to secure the recognition of their demands, and they have neither sympathy nor affiliation with the police who set law and order at defiance. From the inception of the eight-hour movement to the present time they have been persecuted and persecuted. NOT A FREE COUNTRY.
An Episode of Yesterday's Mob Violence in Chicago.
Chicago, May 6.—As an illustration of the character of some of the alien Socialists and some of their ideas of freedom, the News this morning prints the following: "A reporter who speaks the Bohemian language mingled yesterday with the crowd that was encouraging the boys to break Rosenfeld's drug store windows, and suggested one of the men in conversation. The man said he could not understand why it is that men could not do as they think best. He had come to this country because the man who had promised him he would come to a free country. He had come here with the idea that this country was a free one, in which a man could do what he pleased. Now he had found out that the police in this country were just as bad as those in Europe, and protected the property of the rich, which the working-men wanted to destroy. He said he would kill them and their spies. Rosenfeld being a spy, they had driven him from the neighborhood. He had been told that they would demolish the building which gave him shelter."

the meeting adjourned to meet this morning at the same place; also to be at Deering's to keep everybody from going to work.

THE ARRESTED CRIMINALS.
At the Deering Harvester-works this morning was somewhat critical this morning. Committees from the strikers were appointed at a meeting held last night. These were to watch the gates and ask any who were inclined to go to work not to do so. The company had offered an advance of 15 per cent, and some of the men wanted to back at these figures. The majority, however, insist on an eight-hour day.

STRIKERS CREATING TROUBLE.
This morning the men began an struggle at 8 o'clock. The gate on Clyburn avenue was kept locked, and all the men were required to enter by the Fullerton avenue gate. Two or three men slipped in quietly before 8:30, but after that time both gates were surrounded by strikers, who refused permission to anybody to enter.

ASKED TO WORK.
At 8:30 a. m. 60 men were grouped near the gate, but nobody went in. At 9 o'clock Mr. Deering appeared and addressed the crowd. He said all Deering men were invited to enter and go to work.

"You," he said, "are honorable men. You have entered into a fair and honorable agreement with me to work to-day. It is due me that this agreement be fulfilled. I call on you as honest men to enter the factory at once." "Strike," he said, "is a disgraceful thing. I will give you eight hours just as soon as I can. Now we have a large amount of work to do before the harvest, and I ask you to stand by me. After the rush is over I will give you the eight hours."

TWO LAKE VIEW POLICEMEN WERE AT THE GATE, and by their aid and that of the Superintendent a passage was made through the crowd, and the Deering men began to file in, greeted as they went by cries of "Strike," "Eight hours." Still the crowd waited silently in the gate and disposed themselves in the various departments.

TROUBLE FEARED.
About 500 of the men had gone in by 7:30, but after that few entered. Most of them remained in the crowd and said they were to stand by me. After the rush is over I will give you the eight hours."

I will venture to say that there has been twice as many weapons of every class and description sold in Chicago during the last few days than there have been in as many years. Every gun store in the city is crowded with purchasers. Many small dealers have nearly exhausted their stocks, and the wholesale dealers are overrun with orders. One concern sent here early yesterday morning for two dozen revolvers. I had not got down and the order was filled. As soon as I entered the store I gave orders not to sell another weapon of any kind to the city trade so long as the present excitement exists. A few minutes later, the firm that I returned to sent another order, which of course, was not filled. I questioned some of my customers and they unblushingly told me that they did not care to whom they sold weapons so long as they got their money. Other dealers said that persons whom they knew to be agents for Socialistic societies, the pawnbrokers form the worst element in the trade. They have been doing a land office business the last few days in disposing of firearms, and yesterday were the most persistent applicants for weapons that we have seen."

Another firm said they had sold fully 200 revolvers yesterday.

A DECLARATION FROM WORKMEN.
The Executive Committee of the Trades and Labor Assembly and the Master Workmen of District Assembly No. 24, Knights of Labor, have issued the following circular:

FELLOW-CITIZENS.—The tragic events of the last few hours and the sacrifice of human life connected therewith—the legitimate result of the teaching of the anarchists and the demand for the abolition of the capitalist system—has been met by the Trades and Labor Assembly and District Assembly No. 24, Knights of Labor, should be clearly and officially declared. We played to secure the recognition of their demands, and they have neither sympathy nor affiliation with the police who set law and order at defiance. From the inception of the eight-hour movement to the present time they have been persecuted and persecuted. The "Wherewithal System" Bounced, but Indignant—Wool on the Free List—Surveyor-General Demet's Case—Congressman at Play—Washington News.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 6.—Congressman Charles O'Neill of Pennsylvania is anxious to be a public benefactor. He is to judge by the preamble to the bill introduced in the House by him on Monday. This bill, which is entitled "A bill to authorize the adoption of the new educational system," reads as follows:

Be it enacted, that the better to insure the people to more fully follow out the inspired precepts of the Constitution, to form a more perfect Union, to insure the happiness of the people, the health, prosperity and happiness of our citizens, both present and prospective, to promote the general welfare, and to provide for the education of the people, the President is authorized to cause to be printed and distributed to the people, in the English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, and other languages, a copy of the Constitution of the United States, and of the Declaration of Independence, and of the Bill of Rights, and of the Amendments thereto, and of the various laws and acts of Congress, and of the various executive orders and proclamations of the President, and of the various judicial decisions of the Supreme Court, and of the various reports of the various departments and commissions, and of the various other documents and papers, and of the various other things, which may be deemed by the President to be necessary for the education of the people.

What Mr. Blair will think of this proposition to turn his education to the benefit of the people of the unknown inventor of the mysterious "wherewithal system" is not known. He has not expressed himself on the subject.

Funny Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 6.—There were many amusing scenes during the session of the House last night. The Republican members amused themselves pelting each other with wads of paper. Mr. Brannan dropped into Gen. Weaver's seat about 1 o'clock, and went to sleep. Some one immediately covered his head with a silk hat and several jokes were made about it. Mr. Brannan, who was asleep, when he awoke he found it almost impossible to rise, but picking the "silk" off his head, he went to his seat.
